Health Resources for the Black Community at Berkeley

We see you.
We seek to understand.
We are here.
Your life matters.
Your health matters.
You matter.

BLACK-IDENTIFIED TANG STAFF

While all providers and staff at Tang are committed to supporting students, staff and faculty, there may be times you wish to work with or connect with someone of a similar background.

TANG RESOURCES

University Health Services understands that historical mistreatment of Black people has led to the potential for great mistrust of the medical community. We are committed to cultural competency and we strive for cultural humility. We offer comprehensive health, wellness, counseling and insurance services to UC Berkeley students, regardless of insurance.
