- Mondays, 4:15 - 5:45 pm (start 9/23 & 11/18)
- Wednesdays, 4:15 - 5:45 pm (start 11/6)
These 4-week groups are for students experiencing mild to moderate anxiety, depression or stress. Participants will learn cognitive & behavioral coping strategies. Participants will also have an opportunity to engage in discussion, and to give & receive support. Some topics include: self-care & relaxation, developing healthier attitudes, improving relationships, building social support.

Mindfulness for Stress Reduction & Resilience – Grad Students Only
- Wednesdays, 3:15-4:45 pm (at Eshleman Hall)
This group is offered for students who want to learn and practice mindfulness as a means to reduce stress and develop resilience. Each weekly group session will have a different topic or theme related to mindfulness-based stress relief. Participants will practice mindfulness exercises and learn ways that mindfulness can be used to manage stress and facilitate new ways of coping with challenges.

Mindfulness Meditation – Undergrad & Grad
- Mondays, 2:15-3:45 pm
Mindfulness meditation is the practice of focusing your mind on the present moment to become more aware of thoughts, feelings and sensations as they occur without judging them. In this weekly group, participants will learn general mindfulness meditation skills by doing a variety of mindfulness exercises together, discussing their experiences doing the exercises, and considering ways to apply mindfulness in daily life.

From Self-Criticism to Kindness – Undergrad & Grad
- Fridays, 10:15-11:45 am
This group will provide a space for students to learn skills for building self-compassion and kindness, as well as opportunities to offer support to one another. Topics will include: fostering an attitude of kindness towards self & others, building self-esteem through self-acceptance, and using mindfulness to facilitate resilience & self-confidence.

Career Planning: Surviving and Thriving at CAL – Undergrad & Grad
- Thursdays, 4:30-6:00 pm
This 6-week group is designed to help clarify your values related to career planning and set goals for managing stresses associated with imposter syndrome, socio-cultural-familial influences, and indecision. The group will include exercises to increase career self-awareness and strategies for navigating challenges in academic and career planning. Students will also have the opportunity to share their experiences, and give support to their peers experiencing similar stressors.
