Dealing with a Stimulant Overdose

If someone has . . .

- Difficulty breathing
- Severe headache
- High temperature (overheating but not sweating)
- Disorientation/confusion
- Seizures
- Agitation and paranoia

You should . . .

- Call 911
- Give water/cooling pack
- Keep person calm/give space
- Wait for an ambulance

Peel HIV/AIDS Network
serving Mississauga, Brampton and Caledon