Want to promote health in the Res Halls, I-House, Bowles and your Academic Departments?

Apply to be a 2021-22 UHS Health Worker!

Gain valuable public health, healthcare, and health leadership experience. Earn units!

Health workers exist across many settings - global, domestic, rural, urban. Here at UC Berkeley they volunteer to perform vital services, including peer advising and health education, in their communities. UHS Health Workers help other students find and use resources for wellness, stability and prosperity.

WHAT DO HEALTH WORKERS DO AT BERKELEY?

- Dedicate 8 hours per week. Write and post weekly Health Tips. Be a visible and active health champion. Attend class each Tues 5-6:30, 2P/NP units per semester.

- Live in a student residential community: Be a local “first point of contact” for the peers where you live. Not required for Academic Department Health Workers.

- Support for people of different backgrounds about range of health issues. Empathize with their complex challenges. Share resources as a knowledgeable and non-judgemental peer.

- Make one-year commitment to serve, learn and grow. Engage in experiential training and practice for the knowledge and skills needed to make a difference.

TO APPLY

We hope to be fully in-person for 2021-22. However, we welcome applicants who plan to live/study remotely. Dedication to the HWP goals and activities is the key quality we seek.

For details and application, visit uhs.berkeley.edu/healthworkers

Applications Deadline: March 31, 2021

For questions, please email HWPCoordinator@gmail.com

2/9/21