Undergrad and Graduate Groups

Starting a New Medication for Anxiety or Depression
Monthly: Every First Monday, 2:00-2:40 pm (Aug 29 - Dec 9)
Facilitated by Raghav Suri, PsyD
This single session psycho-educational group covers the basic facts of common anxiety and depression medications, and factors that increase the likelihood of effectiveness. The group discusses tips and tricks for effective communication with your prescriber for ongoing medication management.

Worry, Stress, and Your Health
Monthly: Every Second Monday, 2:00 - 2:40 pm (Aug 29 - Dec 9)
Facilitated by Raghav Suri, PsyD
This single session group is focused on increasing your understanding of (1) the body's physical sensations and responses, (2) the different ways that persistent worry about our health may impact our stress response and behaviors, and (3) strategies for coping with thoughts, behaviors, and emotions related to health, pain, and physiological sensations.

Holistic Sleep Wellness: Behavioral Changes to Reduce Insomnia and Sleep Difficulties
Monthly: Every Third Monday, 2:00 - 2:40 pm (Aug 29 - Dec 9)
Facilitated by Raghav Suri, PsyD
This single session psycho-educational group is based on the concept of holistic sleep wellness. It focuses on increasing your understanding of the mechanisms and habits that impact your sleep, in order to help you identify and experiment with behaviors that can improve your sleep and work for you, your body, and your life.

Black Womxn’s Sister Circle
Mondays, 3:00 - 4:30 pm (Begins Oct 3)
Facilitated by Jaiza Jones, LCSW
The weekly group is designed to provide a supportive space for undergraduate and graduate self-identified Black Womxn to explore the challenges of navigating life at UC Berkeley. It provides a weekly opportunity to engage in cultivating self-care and wellness practices, to build meaningful connections, and create a mutually supportive and inclusive community. All Black students "who experience life through the lens of womxn in body, spirit, identity--past, present, future, and fluid” (GenEq) are welcome.

Graduate Women’s Support
Mondays, 5:00 - 6:30 pm
Facilitated by Linda Zaruba, PhD.
This support group is offered for students who self-identify as female graduate students who wish to come together to share the challenges and struggles of being a grad student, discuss ways to balance school & personal life, discuss relationships with advisors and peers, increase self-confidence, and develop relationships with other women in grad school.
Survivors Support Group
Tuesday, 1:15 - 2:30 pm (Oct 4 - Dec 6)
Facilitated by Tiffany Lin, LCSW

This group provides a supportive environment for survivors of sexual assault to gather together and build community. Participants will learn to better understand their present lives in the context of their experiences while learning and practicing skills in grounding and mindfulness. Join this support group of survivors to reclaim a sense of personal power and well-being, as we know healing is amplified by connection. This group is open to survivors of all genders. This group requires a pre-group meeting with the group facilitator before joining.

Please call Social Services at (510) 642-6074, to set up an intake with the group facilitator to get started.

Alcohol and Other Drug - Harm Reduction Group
Tuesday, 2:00 - 3:30 pm
Facilitated by Hez Wollin, LCSW and KG Gehrich, MSW

This weekly group acknowledges that different goals work for different people. With the support of the group, you can work on finding the right balance for yourself, in order to get what you want from your substance use choices, without the things you don't want.

Please call Social Services at (510) 642-6074, to set up an intake with the group facilitator to get started.

BIMOC Black, Indigenous, Men of Color Healing Circle

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Group counseling is second best to individual counseling.</td>
<td>Group counseling has been found to be just as effective as individual counseling in improving mental health. In some cases, group counseling has been found to be more effective than individual therapy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I’m uncomfortable speaking up, I will never be able to speak in a counseling group.</td>
<td>Many people feel anxious about speaking up in groups. Group members usually find that over time they start to feel safe enough to participate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I will be the only one with my problem in the group. No one else will understand me.</td>
<td>Group members find it helpful to learn that others are going through similar issues, and find it supportive to learn new ways to cope and grow through adversity.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I will be forced to share my concerns and worries with strangers.</td>
<td>Group members share when they feel comfortable and only what they wish to share. All group members have the right to “pass” if they do not feel comfortable sharing in the moment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The group facilitators or the other group members will judge me.</td>
<td>The group facilitator’s role is to promote a brave and non-judgmental space and to facilitate discussion.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Group members will share my secrets with their friends.</td>
<td>Group members are asked to respect the privacy of other group members and to agree to not share any identifying information outside the group.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I will be verbally attacked in group counseling.</td>
<td>Group facilitators and members ensure the group is a brave space where group participant agreements are agreed to and respected. A benefit of group is receiving wisdom, feedback, and ideas from both peers and group facilitators in a respectful and supportive manner.</td>
